Considerable jockeying in the first and second legs made Tuesday night's Breakwater Irregulars race unusually interesting.

Next Sunday, August 16, will be the fourth of our five-race Summer series. Bill Barton in Harmony is enjoying a fine score for the three races to date. Anyone who is going to catch him better start soon!

IMPORTANT NOTICE

For the race this coming Sunday, the finish will be close aboard Bell 15, leaving it to port. We are doing this to eliminate the need to fight our way back across the Sound in a dying or already dead and gone breeze, which too often makes the attempt to finish more torture than pleasure. Remember, start at Gong 1, finish at Bell 15.
