

BREAKWATER IRREGULARS

September 15, 1971

Course: 34, Gong 1, marks to starboard; 4 miles.
Wind: N, and faint.

Only those who enjoy racing could have derived pleasure from sailing in the all but calm conditions that existed last night. For over two hours the competitors strove mightily; and when the shortened race ended at Gong 1, only ten seconds separated the first two yachts on corrected time.

The presence of visiting experts aboard most of the Division III yachts lent a different touch to the way each was sailed. Wavemaker is looking for a new navigator, having rounded 34 in the wrong direction.

Following is the order of finish.

Miss Ironside, Tom Donnelly	2:20:50	2:17:10
Arriba, Billy Heller	2:18:00	2:17:20
